

Intensive English Proficiency Program (IEPP)

Full-time program (Requires F1 visa)

Introduction and Program Overview

International Mid Pac College (IMPAC) was established in 1991, offering general English language training for more than 30 years in Honolulu, Hawaii. We are accredited by CEA, Commission on English language Program Accreditation and authorized by the U.S. government to offer full-time English language training to international students. We also offer part-time, short-term English program as well as private lessons and customized English training classes.

Intensive English Proficiency Program (IEPP) is a twelve-week course and offered four times a year in December, March, June and in September. You are required to obtain an F1- visa to attend this program. IEPP has six-levels, from beginner to Intermediate as General English and from low advanced to advanced as Academic English, designed to accommodate long-term students studying for three months or more. This program is perfect for you, if you would like to gain a deeper understanding of the English language or if you are planning to go to a college or university after completion of this program!

Daily Class Schedule and Proficiency Levels

You are required to attend 18 hours per week of classes to maintain your student status in the U.S. You will be placed into your proficiency level (see chart below). For all proficiency levels, classes are Monday through Friday (8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays).

Refund Policy

1. All cancellation requests must be made in writing by completing the Cancellation of Enrollment Form at least 24 hours (1 business day) prior to the beginning of the cancellation period. The date of receipt of the written notice will determine the amount, if any, to be refunded.
2. For cancellation prior to attendance, IMPAC will refund any prepaid tuition less registration fees.
3. There is a $50.00 processing fee for all refund requests.
4. Every effort is made to issue refunds within 30 days of receipt of the cancellation request. Refunds will be issued in U.S. bank-issued checks (U.S. dollars). No cash refund will be given.
5. If a student is dismissed from school for any reason, no refund will be given for the term enrolled. Refunds will be given only for future paid term(s).
6. It is understood that students who register through travel agents or foreign study agents have signed contracts with these agents that may include cancellation penalties, no-refund policies, or home country refund only conditions. IMPAC is not responsible for any fees that agencies collect from students. For tuition refunds, IMPAC will confirm the conditions of agent-student contract before issuing any refunds.
7. Once the school term has begun, 100% of the tuition (minus the registration fee and taxes) will be refunded if requested within the first five working days of the term. No refund will be given thereafter. Students who paid for any future terms will receive tuition refunds by completing the Cancellation of Enrollment Form.
8. The refund policy is in effect from the first day of the term, not from the first day of attendance.
9. There is no tuition refund or credit for future terms if the student takes a temporary leave of absence.

Refunds are for TUITION only. Textbook, administrative or professing fees will not be refunded.
